Donations go to the "NVRI Action Fund," administered by SpiritRidge Institute, LLC, the fiscal agent for the National Violence Reduction Initiative. The funds are used to help pay the cost of the National Violence Reduction Initiative. This includes research, public education, creation of web-based resources, and other activities designed to reduce and eliminate violence. NOTE: Like donations to presidential elections and a variety of advocacy efforts (social, environmental, scientific, etc.), donations to the NVRI are not tax deductible. Part of the NVRI's mission is to inform and advocate to federal legislators and agencies, thus, under federal law, contributors can not take a charitable deduction for their donation.
